Storytelling Legacy

Inviting grandparents on a new Chasing Fireflies adventure.

Are you a grandparent who is interested in creating an amazing legacy gift for your children & grandchildren?

This year we are going to lead you in creating 12 uniquely personal family stories [we call them legacy stories] for your family. Each month, we will show you how (step by step) to either write or record a short memory based on a children's book. At the end of our time together, you will have an incredible family legacy gift to present to the ones you love most in the world.
